Tea Fight in the English Camp

Tea Time vs. Teetschi Pub – Who is the best?

Rough times in the ice tea industry. Who is the better? Find it out right here! Both have very good Teas, that is for sure, but Teetschi-Pub has 9 Teas and TeaTime only 5 different teas. In both teams there is a very good working climate and the employees are really friendly. Tea Time had fresh Tea but Teetschi-Pub was the one who had the idea to sell teas in the camp and to give them cool names like "Arizona".

We have also asked several visitors from Tea Time and Teetschi-Pub and they said that Tea Time is better but Teetschi-Pub has more teas, so they can offer something for every taste. Tea Time has the advantage to produce to a cheaper price with only 50cent per bottle while one bottle at Teetschi-Pub currently costs you 1€.

At the end you have to decide yourself who is your favourite brand. What is the tea of your choice?

A star was born

by Lea

Wednesday evening was the big karaoke night. It started off with a phenomenal "We will rock you" performed by Tom, Gaia and Steffi. It was very funny but they didn't always get the right tone. After that Gaia and Tom were the judges while Gaia was the nice judge and Tom was very mean. They gave points, the highest was ten points.

Moritz and Carmen impressed the jury with a solo performance, all the others sang in teams. The songs were "Ab in den Süden",

The legendary Moritz at his performance!

"I Need a Dollar", "Grenade", "Rolling in the Deep", "The Lazy Song" and "You And I".

After all the performances the jury announced the winner. And it was Moritz who made the audience go crazy with his interpretation of "Ab in den Süden". He was very happy and the audience clapped and was very satisfied with the jury's decision. At the very end almost all people sang

"It's raining men" and then it was time for bed. It was a really cool evening.

Accidents & Epidemic

Drama. Drama. Drama. On our first day in the camp, we had the first "victim". A boy broke his finger and had to go to the doctor. But it was not too bad so he could stay.

Only three days later, another boy hurt himself. We were at the lake, when he twisted his ankle.

During the first week, we didn't have any more accidents. So we started the second week. We hoped nothing bad would happen. But that wasn't true.

The epidemic started with our tutor Daniel. He got sick with a fever and had to stay in bed for two days. At the same time, one of the boys also got ill. He had a bad stomachache and in the middle of the night, they had to drive him to the hospital.

Fortunately, one day later he was healthy again. Just after that, the next two people got sick. They threw up a lot. Both called their mothers and went home.

And now – two days before the end of the camp – the third person got ill. We hope he will get healthy soon! Stay strong!

But still, we had two great and fun weeks.

Dejie's Horrible Accident

Kampl. On a sunny day a terrible accident happened at „Lake Kampl“. There was a rope hanging from a tree. The kids used this rope for swinging and jumping into the water.

But very angry stones were waiting in the water to hurt the kids. These stones especially liked young boys from Vienna.

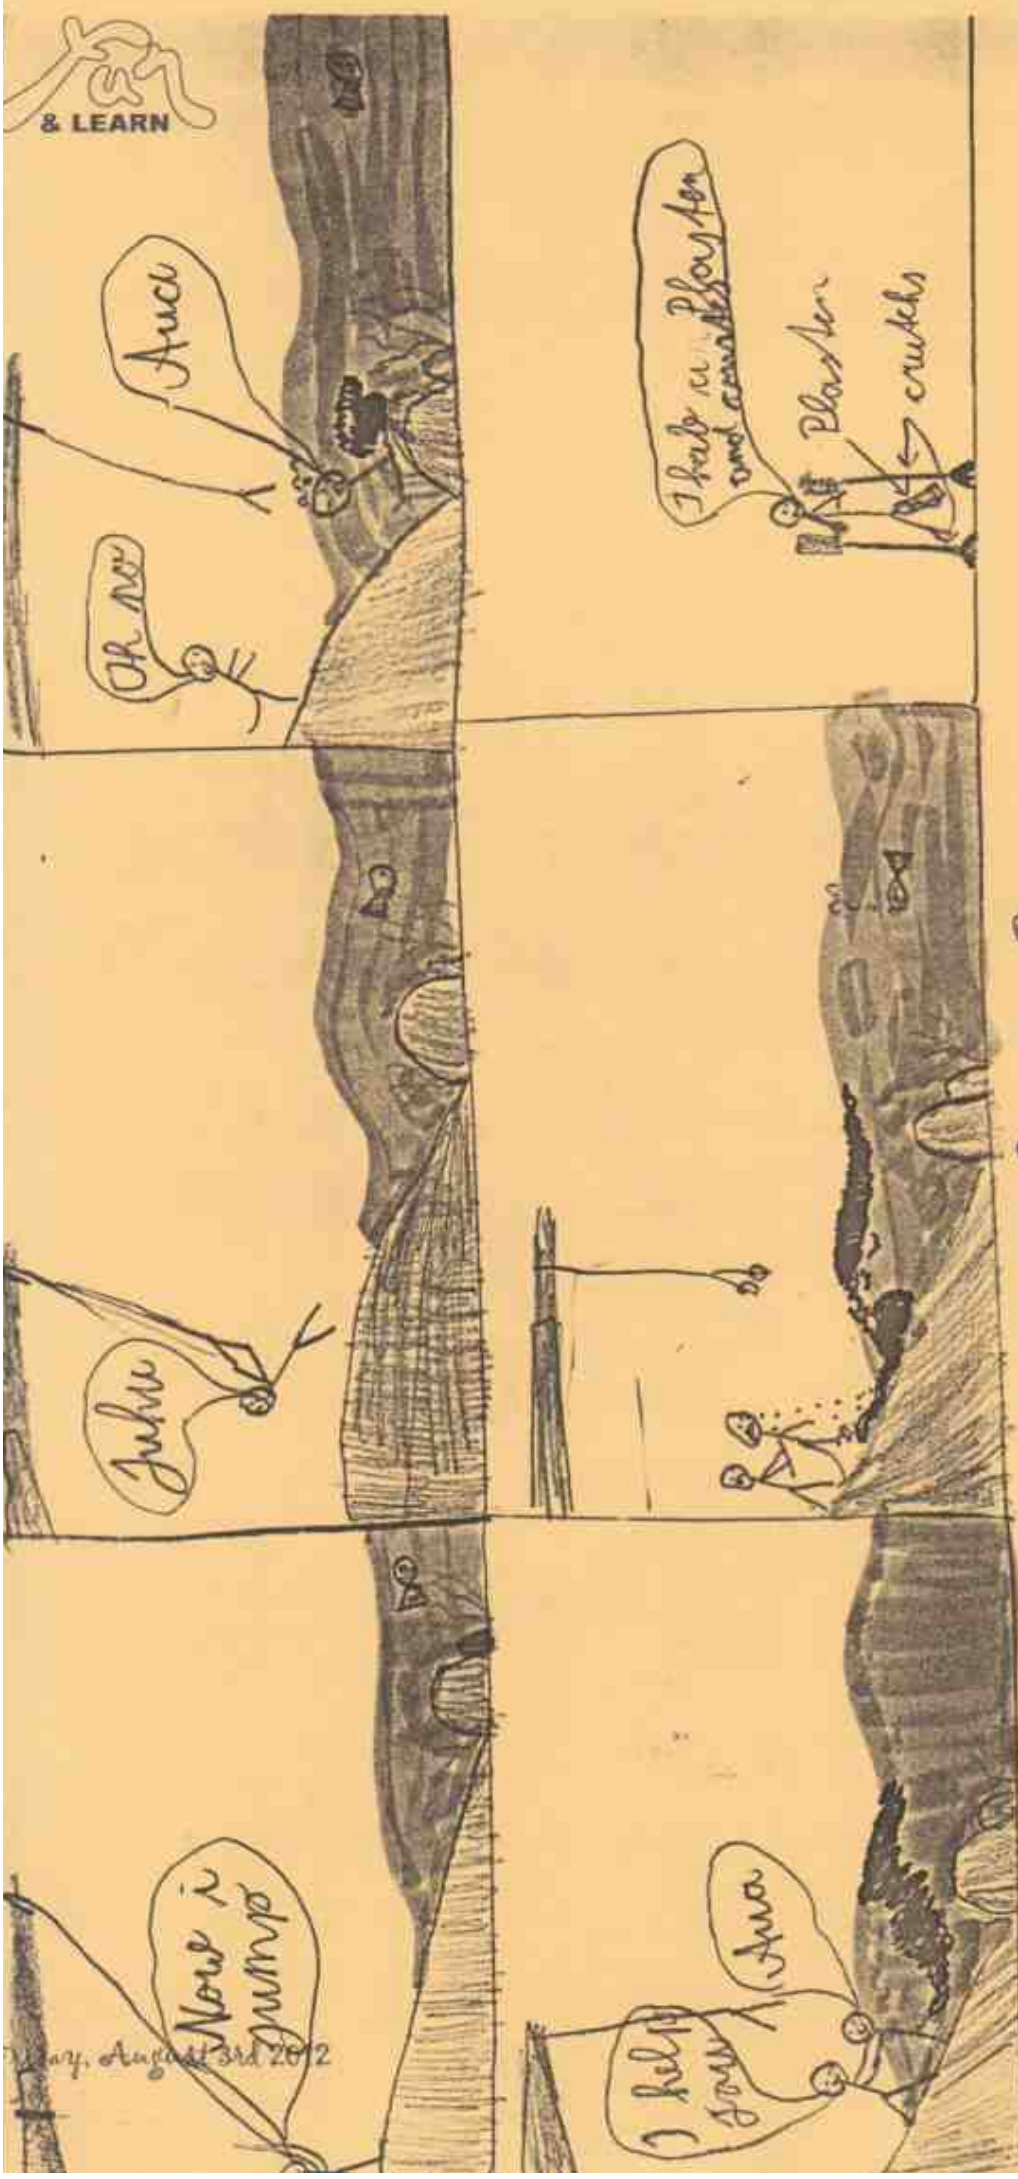

One boy from Vienna, Dejie "DJ" Zhu got caught by a stone, when he jumped in the lake.

We got this short quote from the scene of the crime:

Lukas: "How was the accident?"

Dejie: "I saw the big stone and was afraid. My life flashed in front of my eyes..."

Thanks to Dejie and Lukas for those shocking but very important news! Get well soon Dejie!

Many Thanks to the kitchen!!!

by Delong and Tobi

The food in the camp is really good. We have breakfast, lunch and dinner everyday. For breakfast we have rolls, nutella and other spreads to eat, hot chocolate and different teas to drink.

For lunch we get juice to drink. The absolute highlight has been the barbeque on Sunday when Herbert, the chef of the kitchen, was grilling everything at the terrace. Other delicious moments were the Wiener Schnitzel and Chicken Wings.

Even though Herbert has a very thick Stubai valley accent and is hard to understand for us sometimes, he is very nice and definitely a great chef.

Why is English important in your life?

That's the question that we asked many of the kids at the FUN and LEARN English Camps. And we got many great answers! Check it out!

A big recommendation

English is one of the most spoken languages over the world. So it is very helpful, if you can speak English. In many jobs, this language is important to speak for example: waiter, doctor, teacher, and so on!

Not only in jobs, also for music and the Internet, it's good to know the language too. It is very interesting to understand the lyrics of the English and American songs! On the Internet there are many websites like Facebook, Skype,... which often are in English. When you can speak this language, you can find new friends from other countries or cities!

English is a very easy language. It is very helpful to be able to speak English. For jobs, songs, and friends, this language is perfect. I can recommend you ENGLISH!

Clemens Klingler

A World Language

English is a very important language. For example you need English in most jobs. In addition, you need English at holidays in other lands. Also, much games and songs are in English so you need English to understand them.

In general you need English because it is a world language. When you for instance want to order something in a restaurant in another land or you want to ask for the way, you need English as well. That's why I like learning the language.

Babette Doblender

Find New Friends

English is always really helpful because it's the world language. You don't have to speak the language of the land where you will be making holidays, you only need to speak English. English isn't really hard. At first I wasn't really good at English but then, after two years, it started to be fun and I got better.

When I'm older, I will be a sport-doctor and there I need English.

In English, I like to sing songs and I like that I can speak with people who can't speak German so we can get friends. That's what I like about English.

Benjamin Kinzl

Video Games, dude!

English is important in my life because when I'm playing Playstation 3 I can speak with nearly everybody! I also need English when I get a job. The third reason why I need English is I want to be famous in a country where the people speak English. I could for instance become an important banker.

The last thing is that you feel better if you can speak other languages.

Max Eder

Songs and Games

I think English is very important because when you are in another land you have to speak English. You need English when you have a friend who speaks English. Also songs and Games are sometimes in English.

I think the language is very great because when you are on holidays and they don't speak German there, you have to speak English and that's very great. It's great to speak English.

Aline Hinterlechner

Oh yes, we love to party at the camp!

BAD TASTE PARTY

The topic of the evening was Bad Taste Disco.

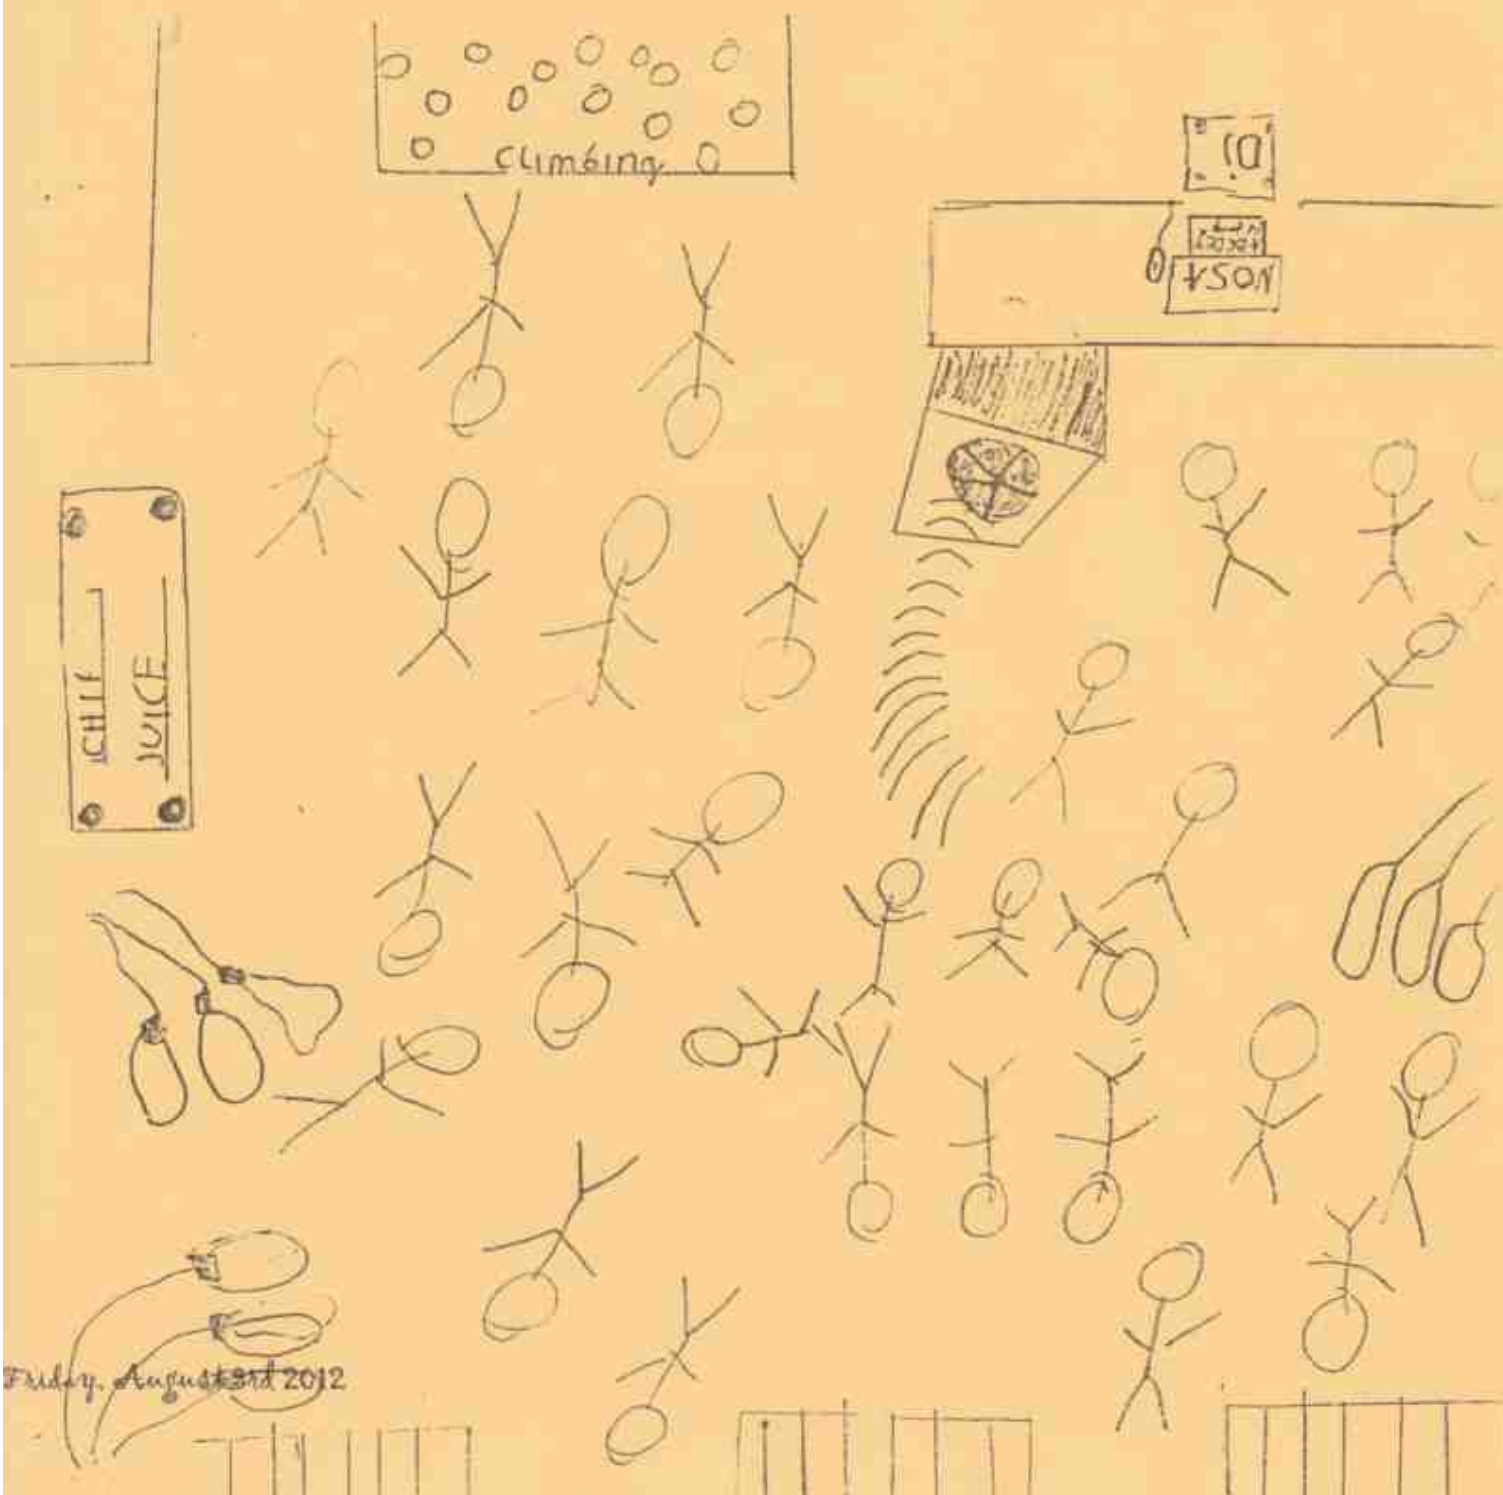

The kids and also the teachers had funny clothes.

This was extraordinary.

Daniel was the DJ.

We all had fun and after two hours of party, we were tired and went to bed.

Who is the gambling king?

by Luigi

Who is cool as ice and has the necessary luck?
We found it out at the casino night!

Already the second evening all the kids were invited for a glamorous casino evening. The games at the casino were bingo, poker, black jack, uno and roulette.

At the end of the evening, the winner was announced. Some people teamed up to increase their winning chances and won more then 1200$ (not real money☺) The first teams won lollies. All others won fizzers.

Marco, Clemens and Moritz has been the best players of the night, and showed their gambling skills in various games. The even won a t-shirt.

Counselors and Kids really dressed up for the night, although the trousers did not fit the dress code in this case!

Christmas Trees burn the best

by Carina

On Tuesday we made a Camp Fire. We went through the forest to the little dam, wherever we collected wood. Gloria even found a little "Christmas tree". When we arrived we tried to make fire and the tree worked the best. It was a big fire but not a very long lasting one. Fortunately we could make some other camp fires later. We sang songs and built bridges. So after all it was a really cool evening.

Fun, fun, fun at the Lake

by Dajana & Magdalena

Sometimes we went to the lake near our camp. The name of the lake is "Kampsee" and we stayed there the whole afternoon. At lake we could do many things like playing volleyball, football or canoeing. And of course you can go swimming in the lake.

A little café offers ice-cream, chips and a delicious strudel. There are even some goats behind the house. On the other of the lake there is a rope where you can swing and jump into the lake. It is a lot of fun but one has to be careful. Not only there but also in front of the house, where Delong was attacked by a very aggressive bee. The wildlife around the camp is crazy! A yellow "Albinowels" has been seen in the lake.

Another funny incident happened on the first of August when a girl ran over our towels and lost her underpants. We all laughed loudly.

Kampsee: THE place to be!

Scary Stories

In a little town...

In the state of Montana, in a village whose name I don't want to remember, in a big house apart from the others, an old woman lived alone with her dog.

She was very scared of killers and thieves, so she had a dog that was always in the garden, protecting her fruits and vegetables. But the woman became older and more afraid, so she thought, well if the thieves steal my vegetables it's OK, but they are not going to go inside my house. So she put the dog in the house. A few months later, when she was driving to the village, she heard on the radio that a dangerous psychopath had escaped from the prison.

So she thought, they can take my furniture, but I will be safe if I put the dog in my bedroom, and she did it. In the night, when she heard a noise she put her hand under the bed and if everything was OK the dog would lick her hand.

One night, she heard something drip. She felt the lick, so she went to check the taps, but all of them were off. Next morning when she awoke she saw this sentence written on the ceiling in blood "Humans can also lick" and blood dripping from the ceiling. She never found the dog again...

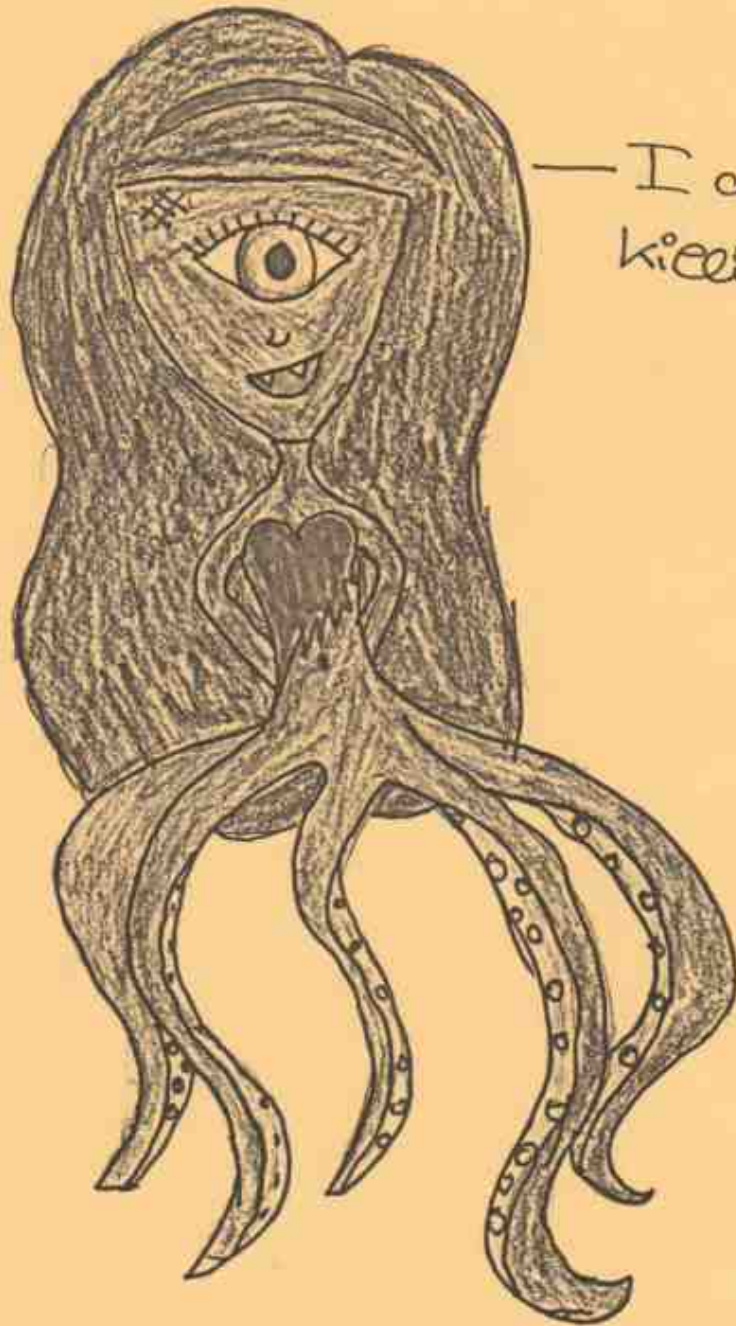

The Nightmare...

In the middle of the night, a door bangs. At first I thought nothing happened, but suddenly someone starts to scream. I get in panic and screamed too. A few minutes later I calm down. I collect some energy and get up. Again screaming. A flinch. Although I'm very afraid, I follow the noise and end up in the cellar. It is dark and I can't see anything so I look for the light switch. I don't do anything, but suddenly, the lights go on.

There is blood everywhere. I can't see the floor. I look around the room and I get shocked. I start to scream hysterically. I can't stop. In front of me, I see a dead body. The face is as white as snow and the eyes stare straight to the ceiling. One leg stands in a strange angle to the body. The lips of the stranger are red because of the blood. His head is lying in a pool of blood. I can't breathe anymore. I expect I will fall into unconsciousness and keep the dead body company.

I try to calm down, but suddenly I notice a hand on my shoulders. I start to breathe very fast and then the hand begins to shake me. I hear a voice saying "Wake up!" I open my eyes and realise that it was only a dream.

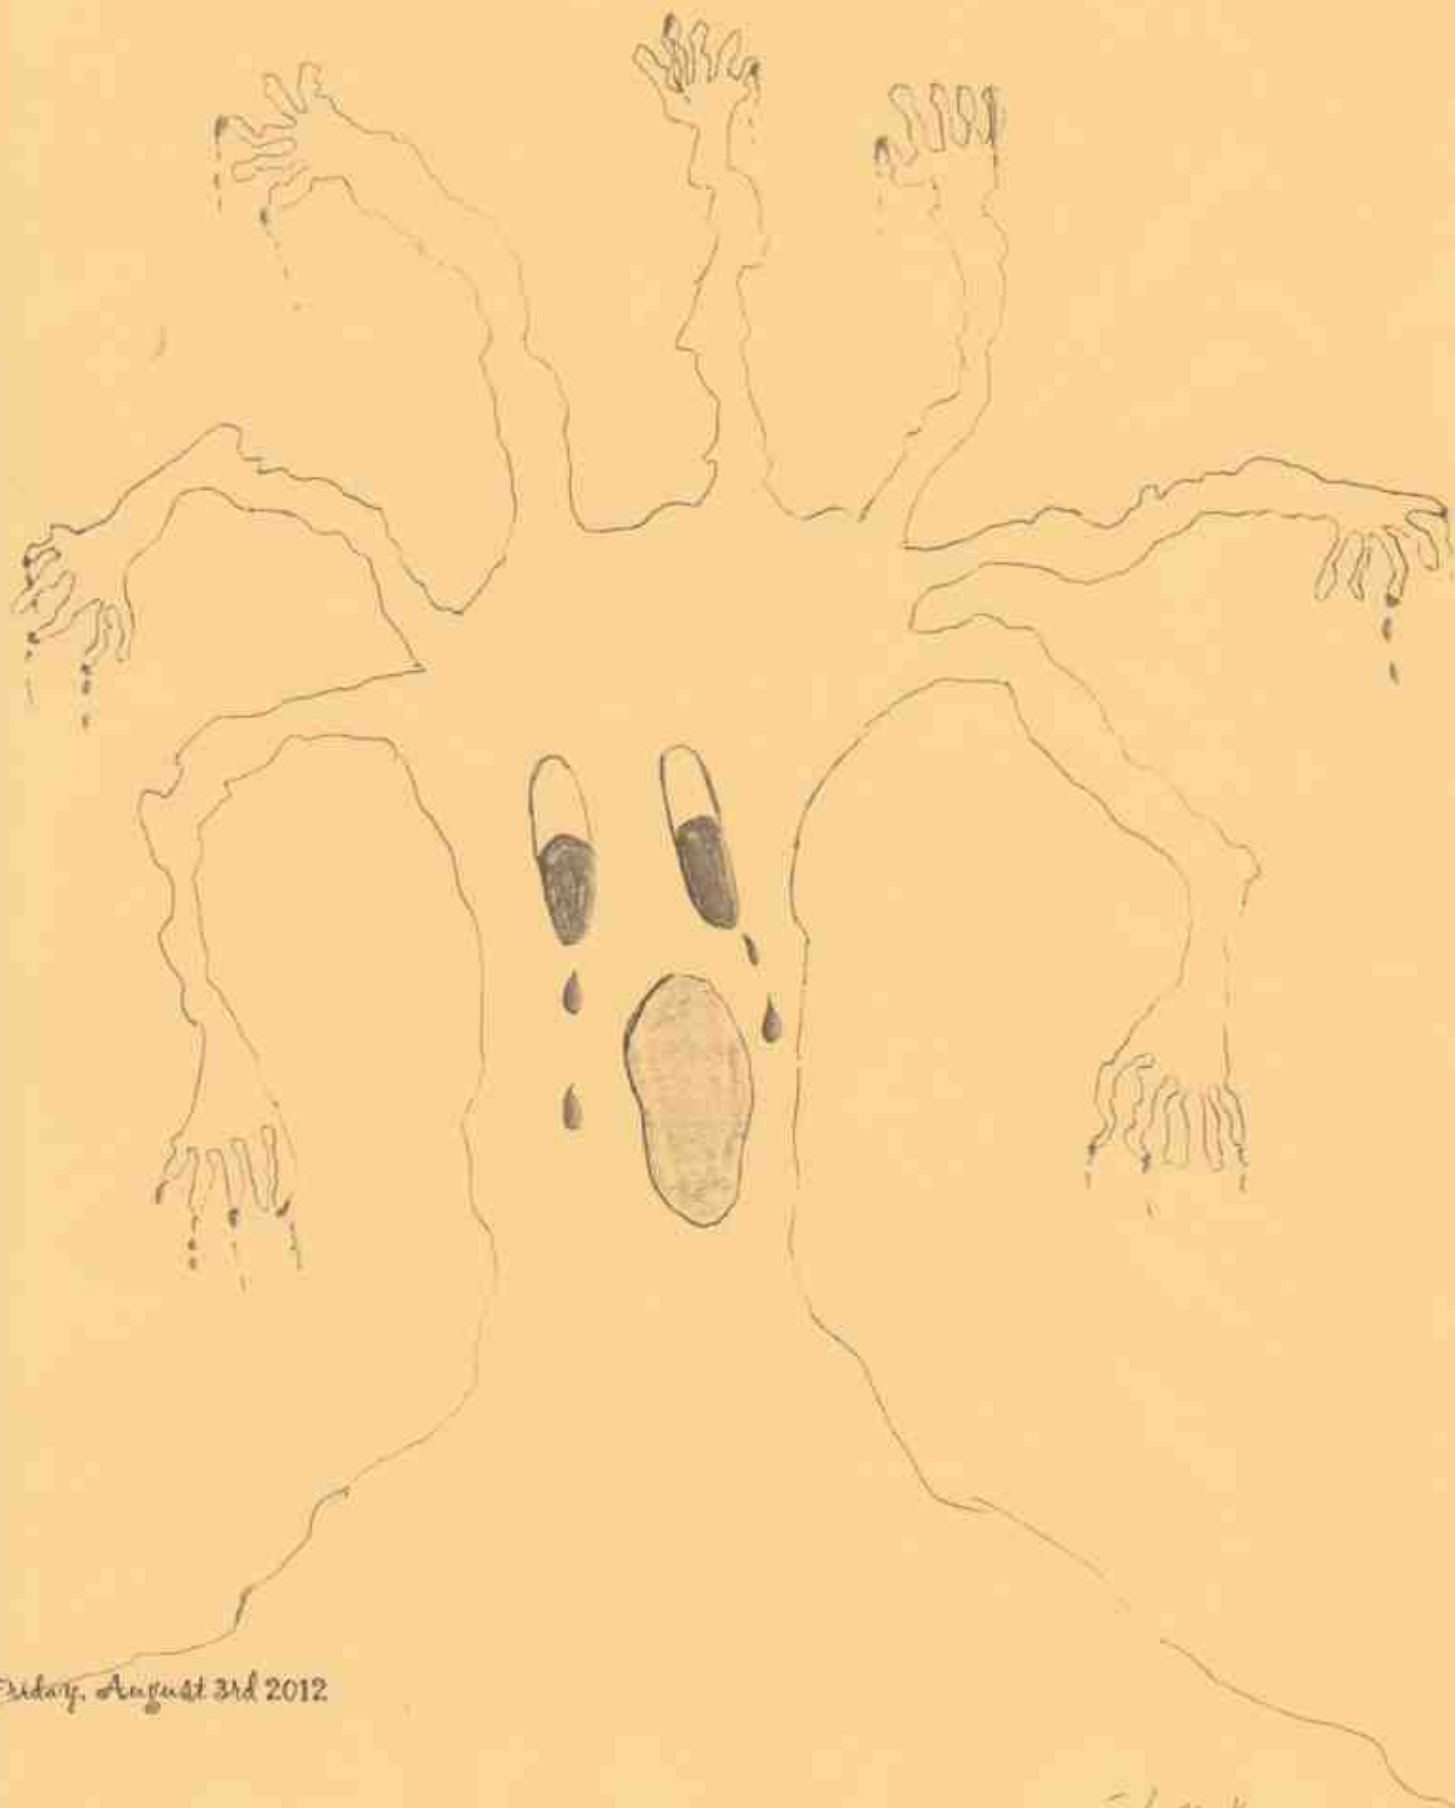

My monster is a girl, a octobusgirl.
She is very crazy!

She has one eye.

I am not a killing monster

The black hair gives the girl the name snow white.

Dr. Summer

by Carü, Sophia & Hannah

Send us a letter at the Dr. Summer - jeatin.

Address: Ski-Hauptschule - Internat Neustift
Give it in the Box in Linningsroom.

Dear Dr. Summer Team

I have had a boyfriend for 7 months and I have done something that's really bad. I cheated on him with his best friend, but I don't know how to tell him. I'm afraid that he will break up with me or that he'll get very angry. What should I do, or how can I tell him?

Lorena, 15

Dear Lorena,

It's not very good that you cheated on your boyfriend with his best friend because not only could your relationship be ruined but also the friendship between your boyfriend and his best friend. But it's your decision if you tell him or not. It's also important that you speak to the other boy about your decision!

Summer Team

Dear Dr. Summer Team

I haven't had my period for two weeks and I don't know what's going on. I think I'm pregnant but I hope not. I don't want to tell my mom. And other people too. What should I do?

Lena 16

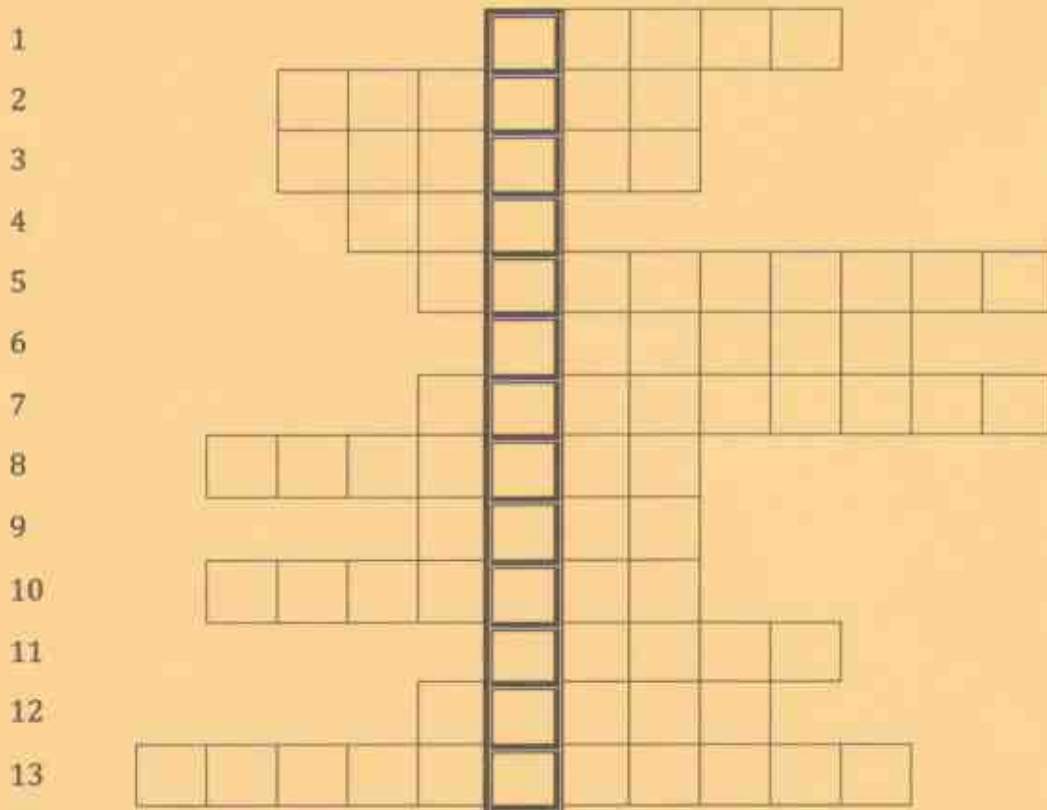

Dear Lena,

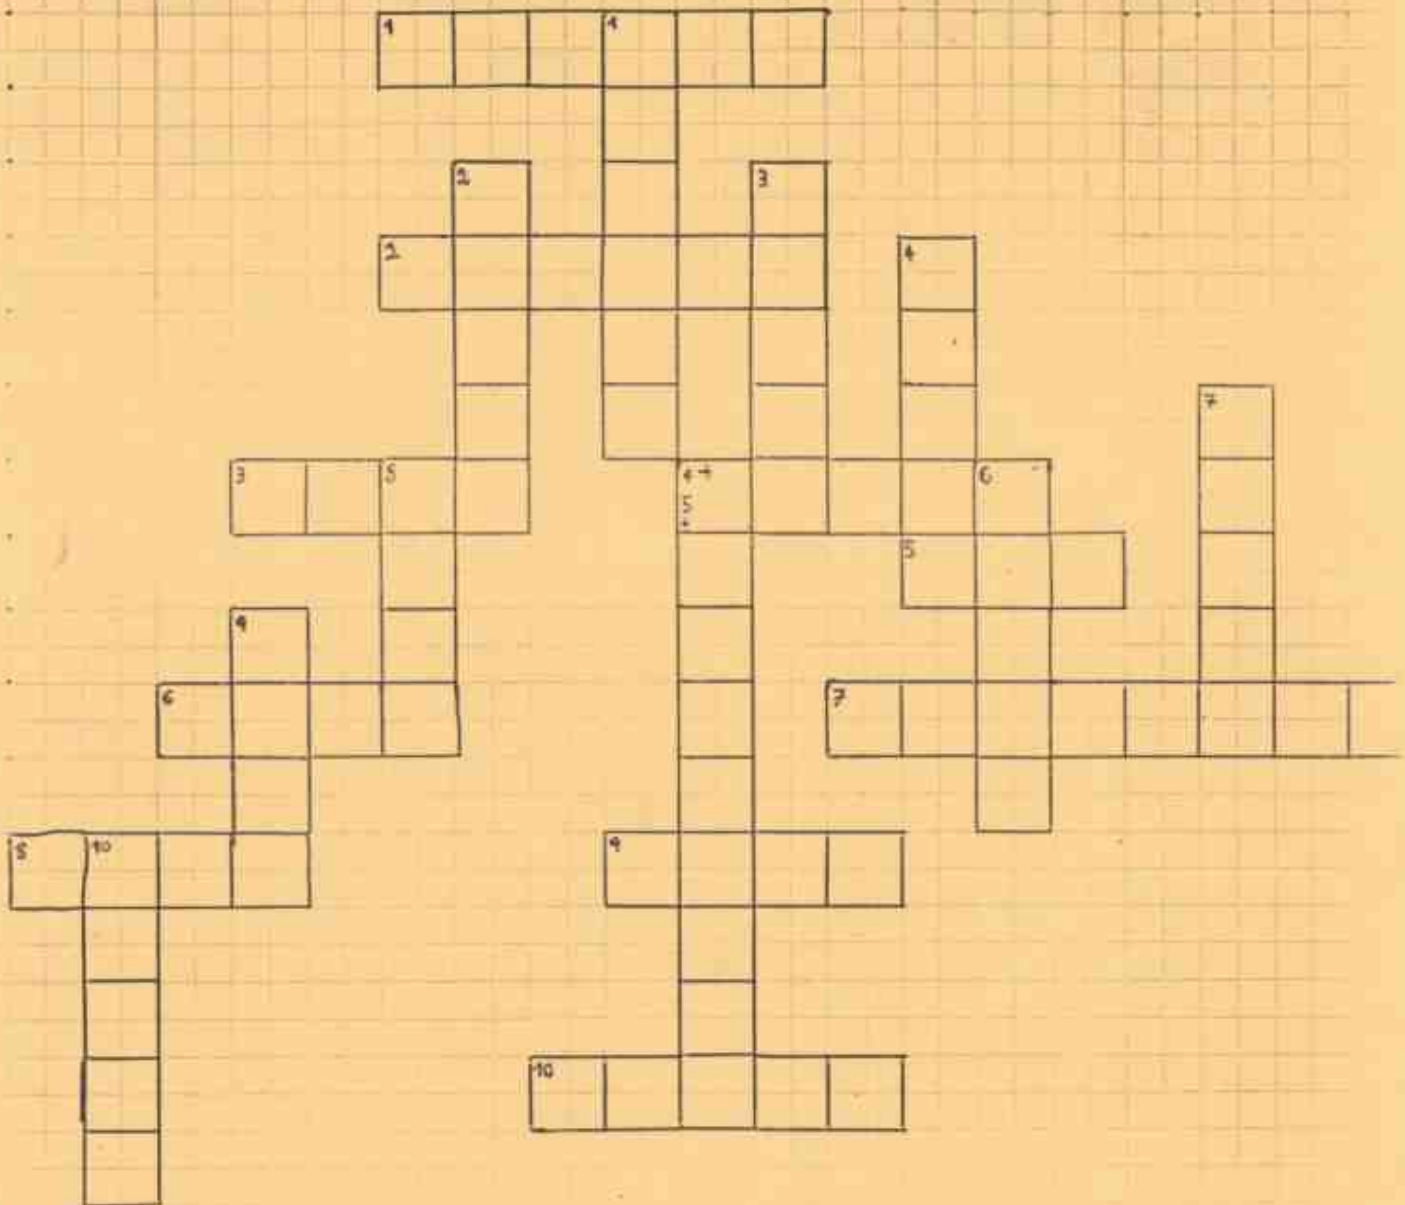

I understand that you are afraid of this situation but it's good that you talk about it with somebody. At first, you should talk to your friends about it. After that, you should go and take a pregnancy test. If it's positive you have to go to a gynecologist because he needs to examine you. If it's true that you are pregnant you should talk to your mom and think about what you should do, because you're 16 and a bit too young to be a mother. But it's your decision. I hope that this helps!

Summer Team.
